Date Sent from Suffolk DOH to the Provider Community:

The Division has spoken with New York State Department of Education and they have confirmed that all developmental preschools should remain closed for the next two weeks. All SEIS services are also suspended. NYSED will be issuing guidance later today. We are waiting for guidance on preschool related services and EI services and will share this as soon as we receive it. At this point virtual services, telehealth, and distance learning cannot be done in preschool or early intervention.
